LAST MONTH

Brian Hayward's Funeral on 5th June was of course sad, our saying goodbye to so faithful a servant of St Mary's, but it was also a time of real thanksgiving for his life. It was the first use of St Mary's bier that I had seen - very fitting and poignant.

Village Fete & Procession. I was very honoured to be asked to open the Fete again this year, especially as it included getting to ride in the Bell's old Jag at the head of the procession! It seemed a good turnout. A big thank you to Marian and Muriel for the church stall which raised £153.

Songs of Praise at St Mary's on 24th June included a good variety of hymns and readings. A big thank you to Jacky for organising it!

THIS MONTH

We look forward very much to having the W.I. Branch 100th Anniversary Service on Sun 8th July, and to the Holiday Club on Weds 1st August.

Weddings: we had two weddings in June and have two more on 21st and 28th July. The latter is that of Angela & Alistair Howitt's daughter Rebecca to Mark Henderson – may they be very blessed in their married life together.

Baptism at St Augustine's on Sat 28th will be my first in Flimwell. I'm very happy to have more – enquiries welcome!
