The next 'Out of the Ordinary' talk is on Wednesday 11th April starting promptly at 6.30 p.m. It is open to everyone and entry is £5 incl. glass of wine. The subject of the talk is Court Dress and Seduction by Bobbie Pryke who recently moved to Ticehurst. Originally, she studied embroidery at The Goldwork Guild. She became fascinated by historic pieces, which led her to research the fabulously embroidered court dresses at the Snowhill Collection and the V&A workrooms and how they were constructed.

"The TV Costume Drama has a lot to answer for", she says. Few would know, or care, how a Duchess going to a Court event in the 16 and 1700s was dressed. She looks stunning but how many pieces of clothing, how long did it take to dress, who did it? Once the construction of these clothes is understood, compare how these clothes affected seduction within the rigidity of both the English and the Japanese Courts !

now and for ever. Amen

Wherewithal shall a young man ' cleanse his ' way: even by ruling him'self ' after thy ' word.

¹⁰ With my whole heart ' have I ' sought thee: O let me not go wrong ' out of ' thy com'mandments.

¹¹ Thy words have I hid with'in my ' heart: that I ' should not ' sin a'gainst thee.

¹² Blessed art ' thou O ' Lord: O ' teach me ' thy ' statutes.

¹³ With my lips have ' I been ' telling: of all the ' judgements ' of thy ' mouth.

¹⁴ I have had as great delight in the ' way of thy ' testimonies: as in ' all ' manner of ' riches.

¹⁵ I will talk of ' thy com'mandments: and have re'spect ' unto thy ' ways.

¹⁶ My delight shall be ' in thy ' statutes: and I will ' not for'get thy ' word.
